The License tab explained

The license tab provides details of your KBPublisher customer number, the type of license you purchased and when you purchased it.

When you purchase from KBPublisher your license key and software downloads are made available under the My Licenses tab in the Client Area on the KBPublisher site. After you install KBPublisher, copy the license key provided in the Client Area here.